Mark 2:1-5
Hampton Sims

When He entered Capernaum again after some days, it was reported that He was at home. So many people gathered together that there was no room, not even in the doorway, and He was speaking the message to them. Then they came to Him bringing a paralytic, carried by four men. Since they were not able to bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above where He was. And when they had broken through, they lowered the stretcher on which the paralytic was lying. Seeing their faith, Jesus told the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven." ~Mark 2:1-5 (HCSB)

Observation #1:

Roofdiggers are fully persuaded that Jesus repairs & restores the broken.

Observation #2:

For roofdiggers, it's not about the obstacles, it's about the opportunity to bring the sick & suffering into Jesus' presence.

Observation #3:

Roofdiggers value faith-infused risk taking over human reasoning.

Observation #4:

Roofdiggers understand that Jesus deals with all of us at the point of our greatest need.
